Dear friends and colleagues,

The last two years have been some of the most challenging any of us have faced, which makes us that much more proud that so many of you chose to make MCT Exchange a priority. During down markets the natural competitiveness inherent to our industry can soften, leading our community to come together in support and solidarity. This was one of the most heartwarming experiences about last year's conference, and we are eager to rekindle that collaborative spirit at MCT Exchange 2024.

We are switching some things up while keeping others the same. We are excited to be back at the Hard Rock Hotel where we can offer a unique experience while making sure that you, our valued friends and partners, can have the best opportunities during our client conference.

We are bringing back our MCT Exchange app and the engagement has grown since we first started utilizing this bit of tech to enhance our conference. We had over 350+ professionals who attended and over 80% took advantage of the app. Combined, we had over 20k engagements, many of which centered on the Trivia Game which has been so successful driving lenders to engage with our sponsors.

MCT Exchange continuously focuses on different ways to bring people together and we offer an array of exciting sponsorship opportunities at the conference to maximize your company's exposure to our clients - learn more in the following pages.

Sponsoring MCT Exchange is an invaluable opportunity to build excellent working relationships between you and our clients. Highly sought-after sponsorships typically sell out early. We encourage you to make your reservation as soon as possible. Conference attendance will be limited to sponsoring partners to preserve the intimacy and client-focused nature of the event.

On behalf of the entire MCT team, I hope you'll choose to partner with us to make this Exchange our biggest and most exciting yet!

Sincerely,

Ian Miller
Chief Marketing Officer, MCT
